

Event Center Request

The City has received a request for higher chairs and high tables to be placed in the event center.

Elderly people visiting the event center have a difficult time getting up and out of our chairs. Please consider high round tables and chairs when purchasing new tables for the event center.